Greater uncertainty, reduced market incentives

We have updated our gold price forecasts to reflect the greater levels of uncertainty that have manifested in financial markets and trade policy since the inauguration of US President, Donald Trump. We had previously considered the risks and implications of tariffs, but had not expected the rate, scale and pace with which they have been both implemented and removed. In addition, we had anticipated favourable corporate tax policy changes that would encourage investment and boost equity valuations. Instead, the uncertainty is hurting capital investment, sentiment and equity markets. It's driving a flight to safety and the unencumbered value preservation offered by gold bullion. This has spurred a rally to all-time highs for the gold price in an environment where real interest rates remain elevated, and the US Dollar is at historically high levels. Either of these rolling over would provide a further tailwind for the gold price from current record levels. These factors are informing our forecast gold price increases.

Gold price forecast changes

We now forecast the following gold prices: 1HCY25: US\$2,890/oz/A\$4,634/oz ( $\pm$ 7.1%); 2HCY25: US\$2,950/oz/A\$4,758/oz ( $\pm$ 9.3%); CY26: US\$2,800/oz/A\$4,300/oz ( $\pm$ 12.0%); CY27: US\$2,700/oz/A\$3,900/oz ( $\pm$ 6.3%); and LT: US\$2,800/oz/A\$4,000/oz ( $\pm$ 8.5%). These prices are in nominal terms. We have made no changes to our foreign exchange rate forecasts. Our near-term forecasts to end CY27 are within  $\pm$ 5% of the latest consensus. Our LT (long-term) forecast is 8% above the latest consensus.

Investment thesis – Buy, TP $4.34/sh (from Buy, TP$3.75/sh)

EPS changes in this report are FY25: 20%, FY26: 44%, FY27: +44% on our higher gold price forecasts. RRL's sensitivity to the gold price is among the highest in the large ASX gold producers. We are attracted to RRL's all-Australian, multi-mine asset portfolio, its demonstrated leverage to the gold price, sector leading cash generation and its fully unhedged, debt free position. Our NPV-based target price is increased by 16%, to $4.34/sh. We retain our Buy recommendation.

Share price performance vs ASX Gold Index

SOURCE: BLOOMBERG AND BELL POTTER SECURITIES ESTIMATES

Regis Resources Ltd (RRL)

Company description

RRL is an established multi-mine gold producer and one of the largest ASX-listed gold producers with all its operating mines located in Western Australia. The Duketon Gold Project (located in the Laverton region 350km north, north-east of Kalgoorlie in WA) is RRL's flagship project and comprises the Duketon North Operations (DNO) and the Duketon South Operations (DSO) which produce a combined ~250kozpa. In May 2021 RRL completed the acquisition of a 30% interest in the Tropicana Gold Mine for cash consideration of A$889m. It is currently producing at a rate of 135-150kozpa with an expected mine life beyond 2030. RRL also owns the McPhillamys Gold Project, a prospective, large, open pit gold development project located in NSW, about 35km from Orange and Bathurst. It subject to permitting uncertainty following a cultural heritage protection order made by Australia's Federal Minister for Environment and Water in August 2024.

Investment thesis – Buy, TP $4.34/sh (from Buy, TP$3.75/sh)

EPS changes in this report are FY25: 20%, FY26: 44%, FY27: +44% on our higher gold price forecasts. RRL's sensitivity to the gold price is among the highest in the large ASX gold producers. Our NPV-based target price is increased by 16%, to $4.34/sh. We retain our Buy recommendation.

Valuation methodology

Our valuation for RRL is based upon the 12-month forward NPV of our forecast free cash flows from the Duketon Gold Project and its 30% interest in the Tropicana Gold Mine, net of corporate administration costs and RRL's net cash position. This is included in a sum-of-the-parts valuation for the company which includes an NPV-based, risk adjusted valuation for the McPhillamys Gold Project and a notional estimate for the value of the exploration potential of the balance of the Duketon tenements and RRL's exploration portfolio.

Resource sector risks

Risks to resources sector equities such as RRL include, but are not limited to:

- Funding and capital management risks: Funding and capital management risks can include access to debt and equity finance, maintaining covenants on debt finance, managing dividend payments and managing debt repayments. Exploration and development companies with no sales revenues are reliant on access to equity markets and debt financing to fund the advancement and development of their projects.
- Operating and development risks: Mining companies' assets are subject to risks associated with their operation and development. Risks for each company can be heightened depending on method of operation (e.g. underground versus open pit mining) or whether it is a single mine company. Development of mining assets may be subject to receiving permits, approvals timelines or weather events, causing delays to commissioning and commercial production.
- COVID-19 risks: Mining companies rely on freedom of movement of workforces, functioning transport routes, reliable logistics services including road, rail, aviation and ports in order to maintain operations and get their products to market. They also rely on liquid, functioning markets to sell their products. Measures being put in place to combat the COVID-19 pandemic are posing risks to these conditions.
- Operating and capital cost fluctuations: The cost and availability of exploration, development and mining inputs can fluctuate widely and cause significant differences between planned and actual operating and capital costs. Key operating costs are linked to energy and labour costs as well as access to, and availability of, technical skills, operating equipment and consumables.
- Commodity price and exchange rate fluctuations: The future earnings and valuations of exploration, development and producing Resources companies are subject to fluctuations in underlying commodity prices and foreign currency exchange rates.
- Resource growth and mine life extensions: The viability of future operations and the earnings forecasts and valuations reliant upon them may depend upon resource and reserve growth to extend mine lives, which is in turn dependent upon exploration success, of which there are no guarantees.
- Regulatory changes risks: Changes to the regulation of infrastructure and taxation (among other things) can impact the earnings and valuation of mining companies.
- Sovereign risks: Mining companies' assets are subject to the sovereign risks of the jurisdiction within which they are operating.
- Corporate/M&A risks: Risks associated with M&A activity including differences between the entity's and the market's perception of value associated with completed transactions.

Recommendation structure

Buy: Expect >15% total return on a 12 month view. For stocks regarded as 'Speculative' a return of >30% is expected.

Hold: Expect total return between - 5% and 15% on a 12 month view

Sell: Expect <-5% total return on a 12 month view

Speculative Investments are either start-up enterprises with nil or only prospective operations or recently commenced operations with only forecast cash flows, or companies that have commenced operations or have been in operation for some time but have only forecast cash flows and/or a stressed balance sheet.

Such investments may carry an exceptionally high level of capital risk and volatility of returns.
